PURPOSE

To provide systematic and professional regulations regarding uniform types, appearance, and use. The directives contained are intended to ensure the safety of department members as well as to attain and maintain the public confidence which results from a professional appearance. These guidelines are further intended to provide consistency and conformity in this area.

POLICY

Members will wear the uniform which has been approved for the particular activity in which they are engaged. Members of a fire company will all wear the same uniform classification unless otherwise designated by a chief officer.

Members will be provided with regulation uniforms by either purchase by the RFD or through uniform allowance. Badges, collar and lapel insignias, buttons, stripes, patches and nameplates will be utilized and worn as specified in this policy. Uniforms and civilian clothes (where approved) will be neat, cleaned and pressed, shoes shined and accessories and insignias properly worn.

Members participating in outside training or activities may wear civilian clothes or other appropriate uniform upon approval of a Chief Officer. Field Operations Division personnel will maintain, at their duty station, one complete clean Class "A" work uniform and Class "B" dress uniform.

It is required that firefighters utilize the proper uniform for the variety of events that are performed by the fire department. At a minimum firefighters shall be in Class "B" work uniform for all public contact, including emergency responses.

Class "A" Dress Uniform is appropriate for the following occasions:

- Funerals and other formal occasions where the RFD has a presence or purpose and other events as specified by the Fire Chief

Class “A” Work Uniform is appropriate for the following occasions:

- All Class “B” events
- Public Education demonstrations
- Candidate hiring and interview processes
- City events and gatherings

Class “B” Dress Uniform is appropriate for the following occasions:

- All Class “B” work events
- Dining out while on duty
- Inter-departmental events and outside training
- As required by the Fire Chief or his designee

Class “B” Work Uniform is appropriate for the following occasions:

- Emergency response (with proper PPE still utilized)
- Station maintenance and cleaning duties

Physical Fitness Clothing is appropriate for the following occasions:

- While performing or preparing to perform physical fitness activities
- While assisting or proctoring physical agility testing
- As approved by the Fire Chief or his designee
- Routine fire station duties after 7:00pm

Special Operations Team Clothing is appropriate for the following occasions:

- During formal urban search and rescue deployments
- During regular training sessions
- As approved by the Fire Chief or his designee

When in doubt about the proper uniform class to utilize for an activity, utilize a Class “A” Work or Class “B” Dress uniform.

Uniform Classifications and Descriptions

Class “A” Dress: uniform cap (required), white long-sleeve shirt, black trousers, black dress coat, black tie, black shoes, black socks, black belt with metal tongue buckle.

Note: Possession of a Class “A” Dress uniform is optional for fire company personnel.

Class “A” Dress uniform will be provided to staff officers and the ranks of Battalion Chief and above.

Class “B” Dress: collared long or short sleeve “polo” shirt (navy blue or white, depending on rank and assignment) with midnight blue trousers that are NFPA compliant, black shoes, black or non-visible socks, and black belt with metal tongue buckle.

Class “A” Work: medium blue shirt or white shirt, depending on rank, with midnight blue trousers both NFPA compliant (non-EMS style BDU pants), black shoes, black or non-visible socks, and black belt with metal tongue buckle. Optionally, a navy blue tie may be worn with long sleeve shirt.

Class “B” Work: blue fire department t-shirt (long or short sleeve) or sweatshirt and midnight blue trousers that are NFPA compliant, black shoes, socks and black belt with metal tongue buckle.

Physical Fitness Clothing: fire department t-shirt or sweatshirt, blue shorts or blue sweatpants with RFD logo and running shoes.

Special Operations Team Clothing: rescue battle dress uniform (BDU) shirt and pants with black boots, socks, black belt, and full rimmed cloth hat. An approved baseball cap or stocking cap may be worn with any class of uniform, except Class “A”.

Uniform Definitions, Policy, Insignia and Commentary

Fire Department Coat: Dark Navy Blue Blauer or Multi-Season Jacket with side zippers or equivalent. Blauer jackets, when issued, should be worn with Class “A” Work uniform. Other jackets may be worn with Class “B” Dress or Work uniform.

Fire Department Tie: Dark Navy Blue clip-on, rear Velcro or regular V-end. Bendover or four-in-hand knot. Two (2) inch maximum width.

Uniform Ordering

Uniforms shall be ordered using an online submission process. It is the responsibility of the individual firefighters to request uniforms when necessary. Administrative members of the department will collect uniform requests and submit orders quarterly to the appropriate vendors.

The ordering of station boots shall be limited to once every two years. Because of personal preference and sizing characteristics, reimbursement up to $100 will be issued to the member requesting boots. To receive reimbursement the purchase must be preapproved and requires appropriate documentation.
